Dear Sirs

On copy to your esteemed favors of the 18th & 24th Dec 1894 we have communicated them to our Clients and while the largest collection is anxious to try the American Markets he is appalled at the terms you name. He is aware that in New York sales can be effected at 15% and 17½% by the best houses in the Trade but at our suggestion he prefers to place this large and valuable collection in your hands, if reasonable terms can be obtained. He has listed most of the more important pieces and pointed out their special features, so that your trouble in cataloguing will be minimized and much time be given saved. Here they can sell for 12½% and as the collections together are much larger and more important than we at first surmised, they containing many very valuable Greek Roman, and British pieces we consider it should realize ~~over~~ £1500. Under these circumstances our principal Client is willing to give a maximum of 20%, and to enable the sale to go through your hands we are willing to make our charge 2½%, if you will make yours 17½%. If this is agreeable kindly wire and we will ship as directed otherwise no year the sale will be placed elsewhere.

The Catalogue we trust will be in your best style, with three plates at least.

The note regarding limits, and you will find that those placed on a few special pieces are only done with a view of preventing a sacrifice, and we are sure that if the sale is at all successful, they will largely exceed it. On any of those retained (which we do not anticipate) we must ask you to limit your share to 10%. We are sure when you see these collections you will be more than pleased with them, as our clients understand the American Market and think no sale of equal value has occurred there for many years past.

Awaiting your kind reply

We are Dear Sir
Yours Obedtly.

J.

P.S. We suppose that some of the lots you will subdivide in a brick case there would be about 1000 lots.

Dear Sirs /

Since writing you, we have seen y<sup>r</sup> brother H. Chapman Esq<sup>r</sup>, who has delivered to us the packet from Sotheby's &c -
Your brother has shown us the advance sheets of the Sale, but we were rather in hopes of seeing the Catalogues themselves, which really ought to be on their way to us by this time, as our custom is getting rather impatient, wants the sale brought forward as quickly as possible, as he thinks if much longer delayed, it will not be beneficial to the sale -

We were very pleased to see the rapid progress that y<sup>r</sup> brother has made towards convalescence, and sincerely trust he will soon get back his old strength.
With best regards, I hope you will hurry up the

Dear Sirs,

Having had the cataloguing of the extensive Collection of Colonial, American, and Continental Coins of the late Mr J.G. Murdoch, we have obtained from the printers proof copies of the catalogue, in order to give you as much time as possible to look it over, and we shall be most happy to do anything we can for you if you yourselves are not represented at the Sale. We have endeavoured to make the catalogue as easily comprehensible to Americans as possible by giving references to books that you use.

Should you entrust us with any commissions, we shall be pleased to carry them out at half the usual charge, which is 5 per cent, making it 2½ per cent to you.

As soon as the finished catalogue is out, we will also post you a copy of that. It contains 10 Plates which will very considerably help you in regard to the condition the principal pieces are in.

Trusting this may be an occasion upon which our former pleasant relations may be re-established,

We remain, dear Sirs,

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your Card, re Waterloo Medal, we beg to inform you that we put down the medal at a special price to you, and, as we pointed out in our previous letter, it is purely on account of its fine condition that the price is so high. We could do on in a poorer condition at the sum you mention. We therefore regret that we cannot make a reduction.

The cheapest V.C. that we have is one which was granted to Pte J. Ryan of the 1st Madras Fus. It is with a Medal for the Defence of Lucknow, and the price is £70. Enclose particulars.

Awaiting your kind reply,

We are, dear Sir,

Dear Mr. Chapman,

In answer to your letter of the 29th ult. you can understand that we were very much surprised when we received Mr. Morton Hirsh's letter from Paris, and our Mr. Forrer Junr. who was going over on other business, took the first opportunity of meeting him, where he repeated that he could do nothing in the matter even if he wanted to be a partner to the deal, until the 1st October when he would be back in the States.

Naturally, as we had to take over the collection on the 1st July it was impossible for us to do anything else but find another partner which we are glad to state we have been successful in doing. Under the circumstances, of course, we regret that we cannot make you a party to the transaction.

With regard to the agreement which you seem to have been expecting, we must state that one was drafted in Geneva and would have been forwarded to you as soon as the purchase price had been paid in. As things are at present, we fear that the only concession we should be able to allow you is a reduction from 10% to 5% of the sale tax on all goods purchased by you if you came over to the sale.

We are,

Yours faithfully,

Dear Mr. Chapman,

Your letter of the 6th inst. is just to hand. We very much regret that you do not think our cable has done you justice.

We notice you say that if you had put up any competition against us we should not have got the collection under 30,000 dollars more than it has cost. You are quite mistaken as to this, because if the collection was to have cost us 30,000 dollars more we certainly should not have bought it, nor, pardon us, do we think you would have either. You have got into your unfortunate position entirely through your friend failing to make good at the last moment, and as we only knew about two days before the sale had to be completed that you were not going to put up a third share of the purchases, it put us into an extremely awkward corner. Naturally no firm can put its hand on so large a sum as £12,000 in a couple of days, especially in these bad times, so that we had no alternative but to find another friend who would find the money required. Naturally, therefore, the person who has found this remaining third, has one-third of the business, whether good or bad, so that it is impossible now to put you in, because the only condition of finding the money was to give that person the position that you would have had. All this seems to us perfectly straightforward, and tho natural sequel to the failure of your friend at the last moment. We can assure you it has given us a great deal of anxiety, and the more so because it was so unexpected and sudden, and we naturally blamed you because you were so certain, and also your friend, that the money would be found without any difficulty.

As regards your complaint about our failure to supply you with an agreement, we quite understand your bankers would do nothing without some tangible proof that you had a hand in the deal, but it was impossible for us to send you any agreement other than we promised to do, namely an agreement as to the procedure to be adopted and the way the sale was to be conducted. This agreement was prepared, and would have been sent you in due course had the money been found, but we do not think it would have influenced your bankers in the very least.

We can assure you that we would much rather you had been in it than otherwise, and it was only the failure of your friend that forced us to immediately look round for other financial help.

The rest of your letter will be answered by one of the staff.

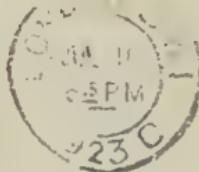

Again expressing our regret, and with kind regards.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Henry Chapman,
333, South Sixteenth Street,
PHILADELPHIA, U.S.A.

Dear Sir,

We are sending you to-day by registered post separately the first twelve coins purchased for you at the Bement Sale. The remainder will follow in two consignments on the 8th and 12th inst. respectively.

On examining the Sale Note again we discovered that lots 711 and 712 have been charged twice over. The following deduction therefore must be made from your invoice:

Total as shown:            ...            ... Fcs. 8365.05

Lot 711	Fcs. 85
" 712	" 125
	210
10%	" 21
5%	" 10.50
	241.50	" 241.50
		Fcs. 8123.55

We much regret this error which has probably been caused through pressure of work at the Sale.

We trust that the coins will reach you safely and shall be glad to receive your acknowledgement.

Yours faithfully,
for SPINK & SON LTD.

Dear Sir,

By separate post registered we are sending you the coins purchased for you at the Amsterdam Sale.

We were not able to purchase as many as we should have liked owing to the low commissions given us in many cases, and we trust you will not mind that in four cases we have had to exceed your commission by a very little. The coins seemed desirable to us and we did not want to come back without buying anything for you.

AES GRAVE.

A STUDY OF THE EARLY CAST COINAGES OF ROME AND CENTRAL ITALY.

4to. 145 p.p. Bound Half Linen. 28 Pl.

We take the liberty of bringing to your notice a work we have just published: The Rev. E. A. Sydenham's "AES GRAVE." The only other books on the subject hitherto have been the very expensive works of Garrucci and Haeberlin. This work at the moderate price of 21s. embodies the author's most recent researches in this interesting archaic series, together with a corpus in tabular form of all the known coins, and 28 plates.

Nous avons le plaisir de porter à votre connaissance que nous venons d'édition "AES GRAVE" par le Rev. E. A. Sydenham. Les seuls ouvrages sur ce sujet, Garrucci et Haeberlin sont très coûteux, et le présent travail incorpore les dernières recherches scientifiques. Il contient outre des tables complètes de toutes les monnaies, 28 planches de reproductions. Au prix modique de 21 shillings, il devrait être accessible à toutes les bourses.

Wir erlauben uns Ihnen auf das soeben herausgegebene Handbuch des Rev. E. A. Sydenham über das "AES GRAVE" aufmerksam zu machen. Die grösseren Werke von Garrucci und Haeberlin sind sehr kostlich und das jetzige enthält die neuesten Forschungen auf dieses Gebiet, sowie ein Corpus der Münzen und 28 Tafeln. Zu dem Preis von 21 Shillings sollten sich die Amateure dafür interessieren.

Dear Sir,

We herewith enclose a statement is for coins purchased on commission, and for which we have to pay at the time of sale.

Might we ask you to kindly favour us with a cheque in settlement by an early post.

Thanking you in anticipation,

We are, dear Sir,

Philadelphia. U.S.A.

Dear Sir,

We beg to acknowledge yours of February 2nd, with the coins which you wish described, and we will do this shortly and return them to you.

The silver coins which you send us are not all current here, and some are defaced. We can allow you 8/- for them, and have credited your account for that amount.

We note that you hope to send us a substantial remittance shortly, but we must really urge a complete settlement of the account. We would point out that this account, as shown by the enclosed, is very largely made up of sale purchases, which we have already paid. With the lapse of time and the prevailing Bank rate, we really are out of pocket on these transactions, when sale purchases are not settled for immediately.

We are,
Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

We are in receipt of your letter of the 17th inst.

We have credited your account with the coin returned.

We do not think the  $\frac{1}{2}$  shekel is genuine. In our opinion it is a cast, and we return it herewith.

We are unable to supply the gold coin of Elizabeth for which you ask. It is a Ryal, which is very scarce.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

In reply to your favour to hand, we regret to say you have been wrongly informed. Coins damaged as these are, are no longer anything but old metal. Formerly our subsidiary coinage in silver was 925 fine, but now it is only 500 fine. The price of bar silver in the market is quoted at 1/3 and a fraction per ounce.

The Kruger sovereign is worth 19/-.

The face value of the damaged silver pieces is £7.12.3.

Yours faithfully,
